Rule. Respondent no.1 waives service. Heard forthwith.

1. On behalf of the Respondent affidavits have been filed in both the above Petitions by Shri Tanaji Sahebrao Shinde, SDO, Haveli Division, Pune. It is not necessary to reproduce the contents of the affidavits suffice it to say that Respondent no. 1 recognize that a total of 128 persons will be rehabilitated in terms of what is set out in para 27 of the affidavit filed in writ petition no.4035 of 2005. There were earlier two groups of 65 and a subsequent group which was of 71. In this subsequent group 8 persons belonged to the earlier group of 65. The statement made on behalf of the Respondent in the affidavits before this court is accepted.

2. Respondent no.1 is directed to complete the allotment after preparing the lay out within 2 months from today and filing compliance report within 2 weeks thereafter. On behalf of the Petitioner in Writ Petition No. 4780 of 2005 learned counsel points out to some difficulties. The Associate Advocate General on behalf of the state points out that he will look into the matter and sort out the difficulties amicably.

3. Rule made absolute accordingly. Both the Petitions stand disposed of. All parties to act on the copy authenticated.
